Fellow Officials –

As the 2023 season concludes, I'd like to call to the membership's attention the following clinics for your consideration as you formulate your offseason development program. The list of clinics below covers all ranges of officiating – from the high school level looking to break into NCAA officiating, to veteran officials seeking to improve in their craft. It is my hope that all of you can benefit from at least one or a few of these opportunities. Please also feel free to share this list with your networks as we collectively seek to bring more people into this tremendous avocation we call "football officiating".

While I have done my best to make the list as comprehensive as possible, there could be some clinics which are not listed. In addition, this specific list is not to be inferred as any endorsement from myself or the EAIFO of the above referenced clinics; it is simply a reference list for your consideration. Though, having attended many of them in the past, I am happy to provide any insight you feel would be helpful to guide you on which you wish to or not to attend based on your personal development strategy and objectives.

On a final note, I wish everyone a very safe and happy holiday season. I hope all can take advantage of some relaxation with your family and friends while looking forward to the opportunities of 2024 to come. In addition to these clinic opportunities, the Philadelphia Chapter will have various offseason training sessions to be scheduled shortly.

Yours in officiating,

Nick A. Froslear
President – EAIFO Philadelphia Chapter
